

Homework for down command

Day 1 and 2:

- Practice loose leash walking for 2 minutes in the living room. This is a warmup.
- Ask your dog to sit for 30 seconds and release after 30 second. Repeat this 7 times in a row.
- Ask your dog to sit and stay for 1 minute.
- Stand on your dog's right side and ask it to lie down.
- Ask your dog to lie down and stay for 30 seconds.
- Go to the end of the leash and call your dog to you and ask it to sit right away. Release the dog after 10 seconds. Repeat this 2 times.

Day three and four:

- Practice loose leash walking for 2 minutes in the living room. This is a warmup.
- Ask your dog to sit for 10 seconds and release after 10 second. Repeat this 5 times in a row.
- Ask your dog to sit and stay for 2 minutes.
- Stand on your dog's right side and ask it to lie down.
- Ask your dog to lie down and stay for 1 minute.
- Go to the end of the leash and call your dog to you and ask it to sit right away. Release the dog after 20 seconds. Repeat this 3 times.

Day five and six:

- Practice loose leash walking for 3 minutes in the living room. This is a warmup.
- Ask your dog to sit for 1 minute and release after 20 second. Repeat this 8 times in a row.
- Ask your dog to sit and stay for 2 minutes.
- Stand on your dog's right side and ask it to lie down.
- Ask your dog to lie down and stay for 2 minutes.
- Go around your dog in a big circle, fast and slow, go back to your dog's right side and release your dog. Repeat this 3 times.